

Dr. Redden's Learning to Read the Foot Inside and Out

Johnson Veterinary Clinic
6928 State Rt 245
North Lewisburg, OH 43060

Sept. 17-18, 2010

SCHEDULE

Friday Sept 17, 2010

- 8:00 -10:00 Learn to read growth rings and other external characteristics that define the healthy foot, various grades of club feet, crushed heels, laminitis and the thin soled foot.
- 10:00 -10:30 Break
- 10:30 -11:15 Understanding how radiographic information relates to external features and landmarks
- 11:15 -12:00 How the mechanical formula is the key to a healthy foot
- 12:00 -1:00 Lunch
- 1:00 - 5:00 Live Demo
- Examining the young and mature foot for external landmarks and correlating the findings with radiographic information
 - Basic radiographic protocol: what farriers need to know
 - Examining, categorizing and shoeing the club foot on the young and mature horse

Saturday Sept 18, 2010

- 8:00-10:00 Ways to manage the club foot
- 10:00-10:30 Break
- 10:30-11:15 How to help the crushed heel recover
- 11:15-12:00 Shoeing options for the navicular horse
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-5:00 Live demonstration
- Shoeing the crushed heel horse
 - Evaluating, designing and shoeing the navicular horse